

A close-up, black and white photograph of a hand holding a textured metal tool, possibly a pen or stylus, against a dark, textured fabric background. The hand is positioned in the lower right, with the index finger pointing towards the center. The tool has a fine, grid-like texture and a smooth, cylindrical body. The fabric background has a complex, woven pattern. The overall mood is industrial and sophisticated.

THE FINAL SAY IN LEATHER PRODUCTS AND ACCESSORIES

Nobody should tell the story of the Fashion House Emanuel Ungaro without starting with its founder Emanuel Ungaro. From the age of 5, Emanuel played with the sewing machine, the whole family's work tool. This provincial life provided him later with the key to his future trade and introduced him to a lifestyle embracing painting and music that has followed him throughout his life.
